GENERAL RULES

1. Cultural sensitivity and appropriateness

The film must conform to the standards of school competitions and respect the culture and traditions of the Sultanate of Oman. It should not hurt the sentiments of any member of society and must avoid any affiliation with religious or political groups.

2. Statutory warnings

Appropriate statutory warnings must be included wherever necessary.

3. Student-created content

All aspects of the filmmaking process must be completed solely by students. The involvement of adults or professionals, including acting, is strictly prohibited (This rule applies only to categories 1, 2, 3, and 5). Additionally, the film must not contain any identifiable elements of the participating school (e.g., school name, logo, uniforms, banners, etc.). No previously shot footage may be used.

4. Role disclosure

Participants must clearly mention their individual contributions to the film (e.g., scriptwriting, editing, acting, directing).

5. Language requirement

Films must be in English. English subtitles must be displayed in all frames.

6. Copyright compliance

The film must not include any copyrighted content (e.g., music, video clips, images) unless the participants hold valid rights or licenses to use such material.

7. Originality of content

The theme, visuals (frames), and music must be original. Films previously submitted to other competitions will not be accepted.

8. Plagiarism and disputes

Any accusations of plagiarism will result in immediate disqualification. In case of disputes, the decision of the jury will be final and binding.

9. Social media restriction

Films submitted for ISFF 2025 must not be shared or circulated on social media prior to the official event. Violation of this rule will lead to disqualification

10. Acceptance of terms

Submission of an entry implies the participant's unconditional acceptance of all the terms and regulations mentioned herein.

11. Submission requirements

A synopsis or summary of the film must be submitted in a pdf format along with the final video file.

The file must be renamed using the following format:

school code_genre code_category_title of the film, for instance:

106_HSE_Jr_Title (title of the film to be typed)

106_SF_CwSN_Title (title of the film to be typed)
