In-House Aptitude Test for Grade IX Students

Dear Parents and Students,

The Counselling Department is pleased to inform you that an In-House Aptitude Test has been arranged for all Grade IX students. The purpose of this assessment is to help students understand their strengths, interests, and aptitude areas, which will support future academic and career planning.

Test Details:

- Mode of Test: Online
- Link Availability: The test link will remain active until Saturday, 8 August 2026. Students may attempt the test at any convenient time before the deadline.
- Duration: Approximately 1½ hours (90 minutes).
- Email ID: The test can be attempted only using your school email ID.
- Test Link: <https://forms.gle/VpbKyeADwqfD6AiU9>

Instructions for Students:

1. Attempt the test in a quiet and distraction-free environment.
2. Ensure you have a stable internet connection before starting.
3. Complete the test in one sitting, as interruptions may affect the results.
4. Adhere strictly to the instructions provided. If 10 minutes are allocated for a particular section, ensure that you follow the allotted time precisely. Do not exceed the specified time limit.
5. Read each question carefully and respond honestly.
6. Students are advised to keep a notebook and pen handy, if required.

The results of the aptitude test will be used only for educational and counselling purposes to guide students in making informed academic and career choices in the future.

We request all Grade IX students to complete the assessment before the link closes on Saturday, 8 August 2026.

For any queries, please contact the Counselling Department.
